Introduction

A Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) is a legal document that lets an adult appoint one or more people to help them make decisions or to make decisions on their behalf.

This gives the adult more control over what happens to them if for example, they have an accident or an illness such as dementia and can't make decisions for themselves at the time when they need to be made.

2 Types of LPA

There are two types of LPA, these are:

- Health and welfare
- Property and financial affairs

An adult can choose to appoint an attorney to make decisions regarding one type or both types of situations.

The adult must be 18 or over and have mental capacity when they make their LPA.

Professionals must speak to anyone who holds LPA.
